

SENATOR HABERMAN: Did you hear the question?

SENATOR BEUTLER: No, I'm sorry, I didn't hear the question.

SENATOR HABERMAN: My questions was to refer this bill to the Education Committee and the Revenue Committee and solve the problem that way and not have this big issue and this big fuss.

SPEAKER NICHOL: One minute.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, Senator Haberman, I guess I don't really understand why there is a smaller fuss in the other direction. I think we made a decision. I think it is a good decision. I think it is a meaningful decision...

SENATOR HABERMAN: You answered my question. You wouldn't support that. Well, I guess that kind of proves that they are not trying to refer it to the two committees that basically handle these issues, the Education Committee and the Revenue Committee. So I guess maybe I'd have to agree with Senator Lamb that there is a power play going on, and quite frankly I don't like it. Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: I call the question.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. It takes 25. Nine are excused. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk. Senator Landis. The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. The board wasn't quite cleared, so look again to see if your...Okay, record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 19 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The house is under call. Will you please record your presence. Those not in the Chamber, please return to the Chamber and record your presence. Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Mr. Speaker, I'd like to ask for a roll call vote, but I'd accept call in votes between now and that
